

Every trajectory measure is flat across conditions

Share of the 54 conversations in each condition taking each achievable value; orange numerals above are condition means. The measures are discrete because $T=4$: at most three shifts, four distinct genres, and five achievable entropies. Descriptive only, no advertisement contrast is tested here.