

The trajectory measure is sensitive, but not to advertisements

Conversational depth moves the labels

Advertisements do not

Left: share of utterances by genre across the four turns (n=1,080). Right: paired difference for the transition crossing an early advertisement against the same transition without one, in units of its own standard deviation, with 95% intervals. n=54.